This section introduces the main areas of the Tar Heel Tracker report.

1. Reading the Tar Heel Tracker

    The Tar Heel Tracker is made up of Requirement Groups.

    Requirement Groups contain the Requirements that are applicable to a student's program (degree), plan (major) and sub plan (concentration/track)

    Class Status Symbols indicate the status of the courses being used in a requirement.

2. Reading a Requirement Group

    a. Requirements
        Contain the actual course requirements for the program, plan and sub plan.

    b. Requirement Line
        Sub sections of a requirement that contain course lists.

    c. Statistics
        Records and reports the statistics for requirement groups, requirements and requirement lines.

    d. Course Lists
        Displays the courses used in a requirement.

3. Course List Descriptions

By clicking on the course description inside a course list, you are able to see the catalog information for that course.
